

Polis (Project On-Line Indianapolis Study) Center Records, 1991-2001
Preliminary Inventory
UA 023
Qty.: 50 c.f. (49 cartons, 3 document boxes)

ABSTRACT

The Polis Center is a research center established in 1989 and affiliated with IUPUI and its School of Liberal Arts that focuses on Indianapolis and Indiana-related research projects. The majority of the records included here form the Indianapolis Congregations Archives from the Religion and Urban Culture project. Data compiled was analyzed to produce several books and other studies of religious life in Indianapolis.

Records include statistical reports, survey information, interviews, records and information on Indianapolis neighborhoods and individual congregations, and other materials.

ACCESS

Personnel and student records and other personal information in these records are restricted. All other material is open to the public without restriction. Copyright laws of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) govern the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

PREFERRED CITATION

Cite as: Polis Center Records, Ruth Lilly Special Collections and Archives, University Library, Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis.

ACQUISITION

Accessions: UA-023, A2002/03-048.

SUBJECT TERMS

Polis Center
IUPUI (Campus). School of Liberal Arts
Indianapolis (Ind.) – Religion

COLLECTION STATUS

This preliminary inventory serves as an interim guide to the described records. A finished finding aid based on final appraisal and arrangement of the records of this university unit will be prepared at a future date.
