ABSTRACT

With the creation of IUPUI in 1969, the Office of Admissions was organized under the supervision of the Office of Student Services, with the purpose to combine admissions at the downtown campus and the 38th Street campus. The office was originally located on 38th Street. Later, the office was placed under the Director of Administrative Affairs. Still later, the office was re-titled Office of Undergraduate Admissions. In 1987 the Office of Orientation and Information Services was added to it.

Records include publications.
